Register at a Workforce Center

You must register for work or we may not be able to pay your benefits. You must register for work or update your registration, even if you have registered before. You can register in person or online.

In addition to job-search assistance, your local workforce center can help with understanding today's job market, resume reviewing, interview skills, and training assistance.

Register for work at connectingcolorado.com
